

Liberty WWTP Plant Manager's Training and Networking Event

September 8, 2017

Bio: Dana Ulmer

Liberty Assistant Director of Utilities

BS in Business Administration

25+ years of experience in both Private and Public Operation & Management of Drinking water and Wastewater Treatment Plants. Responsible for oversight of Liberty's drinking water production plant and wastewater treatment plant serving a population of 30,000.

Mr. Ulmer was part of the 3 person Liberty team responsible for plant feasibility study, initial design of the treatment processes, equipment selections, staffing plan, construction monitoring, startup and regulatory compliance.

Abstract: Liberty MO WWTP Solids Handling Processes

To share the experiences of startup of Liberty Solids Handling processes. The discussion will include

- 1) Startup and lessons learned of the plant's MTAD Process (Membrane Thickening Aerobic Digestion) and
- 2) Dewatering system startup and dewatering polymer selection process.

Agenda:

11:30am Networking Lunch

1 pm Training: Liberty MO WWTP Solids Handling Process

2:00 pm Break

2:15 pm Facility Tour